home could not be anything but happy. I thought, when he planned and arranged all these things, how many beautiful anticipations of future happiness must have been clustering and brighting around my dear husband's heart.

Such reflections quite subdued me, filling me with a strange pitying love for him. For awhile I was organized last May, by the "president" and twenty giving John Thompen $2,500 for allowing $200,000 to lie in bank to their credit for three or four days.

United States vs. Charles V. Cutter and his Suffering such as strict watch and ward over my tongue and temper, ruled my rebellious nature with such an iron hand, that everything went smoothly and prosperously; I gnarded laredd's heart from the only thing that would wound it in cherishing his happiness I found my own. But I had no real and sufficient occupation; so much time and nothing to do in it; such a superfluity of unapplied power—such a lack of necessary patience. I soon became conscious that there was always a great aching void at my heart. Where I thought to find sympathy with every though and emotion, a constant stimulus to all aspiration.

In my drawing-room I had found a splendid piano. Harold had said he liked music. I thought I had discovered both an occupation and a motive for it, when I applied myself heart and soul to the cultivation of my musical power. The slightest expression of a wish to take lessons placed the services of a first-rate master at my disposal. I services of a rist-rate master at my disposal. Tho coolest remark we have seen appear in the Louisville Journal of yesterday morning. The editor gives the Freesoil programme for the harvest.

Liabilities—indebted to God alone, who sends the rain. D. Campbell is to be elected Speaker, and a suitable committee will be secured, that will report in favor of admitting Kansas as a free State. out ap along side it," said the other, "and 1'll warout ap al ended in favor of freedom; if not, the Presidential election will decide the question.

The election of Lewis D. Campbell will be the first step in the process, and what do you think the editor of the Louisville Journal has to say in view of the whole subject? "His (Campbell's) success cannot be achieved, unless by the aid of the Northern Democracy. We will look with interest | we want," retorted a leading Quaker. to this test of its nationality."

We heard a great deal about the exploits of the elections. Against every Democrat, Sam di- in by 6 o'clock, P. M., of this day. rected his artillery. The Fusion last year, so renewned, was composed of Know-Nothings and Freesoilers. This combination beat all the Demotwenty-three. The Fusion elected a majority of the House, ready to obey the Freesoil demand upon them. They now put up Lewis D. Campbell for Speaker of the next Congress, and they will all support him.

The test, then, which the editor of the Lonis ville Journal looks to is just this: If the Northern Democracy vote for this know-Nothing and Abolitionist, they are not sound; that is, if they vote for the Louisville Journal's friends, they are not

We should like to know if the editor of the Louisville Journal can throw a little light on what appears to be a very foggy subject. How many "Americane" are there in Congress; how many national "Americans ?" How many of them North will not vote for Lowis D. Campbell? How many disciples of Sam are there in Congress from the free States who are not anti-Nebraska men, or Freesoilers, or Abolitionists?

Seward boasts that they have got the House Senator Wilson boasts that they have got it; and if so Sam, national Sam, who was doing such exploits last year in all the free States, really elected nobely; he gave all his votes to the Abolitionists to beat the Democratic party, and elect Abolitionists. Know-Nothing victories in the free States, where are they? Where are their fruits? If the Knew-Nothings did not vote for these Abolition Congressmen, who did they vote for?

Is it not refreshing, now, to read of a Know Nothing editor in the South now depending upon the Democracy of the North to save the South from an Abolition triumph in Congress, after his party, in all the free States, have been waging a war of extermination against Democrats in these free States? If Democrats from the North vote as the Know Nothings of that body from the same region will, then will Campbeil be clected. That Democrats of the North can't prevent such a resuit. They have not votes enough. There is no just as soon vote for Old Nick. Let's see what the Southern Know-Nothings will do?

HAD THE AGUE FOR TWELVE YEARS!!

PROTIDENCE, June 29, 1555.

Having been Informed of the lines of a poor, but worthy woman, who has not been free from Fever and Ague a month at a time for the last trefley years, I supplied her gratuitously with Rhodes' Fever and Ague a month at a time for the last trefley years, I supplied her gratuitously with Rhodes' Fever and Ague to the completely restored her to health and strength, and as four months I has now elapsed, there is no reason to doubt the permanency of the cure.

I am also aware of many other cases in which it has been used, and have never known it to fail.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27. The Union of this morning publishes a letter from John Van Bnren, in reply to its strictures on his speech at Oswego. He predicts that the New York Soft Shell ticket will be elected by 50,000 pleurality, and asked the Union whether it desired to see that ticket elected or defeated. The Union replies, in view of Van Buren's declaration, that all the candidates on the ticket, except two, were openly and warmly the advocates of Markin Van Buren in 1818, and that it is, therefore, a matter of indifference, so far as the interests of the Demo-eratio party are concerned, whether the ticket

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

NEVER .- The wity "Shirley" in the California loneer adds another to the many parodies on the "I never had" of Tom Moore:

"I never had two humming-birds, With plumage like a sunset sky, But one was sure to fly away, And the other one was sure to die.

I never nursed a flying squirrel, To glad me with its soft black eye, But it always ran into somebody's tent, Got mistaken for a rat and killed!"

A NEW NURSERY REYME,-Phinoas T. Barnus is about issuing a new edition of juvenile lyrics, to be dedicated to the descendants of Mother Goose who are not yet all dead, as some have foolishly supposed. Here is the first contribution:

She had a little baby, And it was very sweet; She took it to the baby show, The other babes to beat, Lulie was a wonder— Lulie got the prise; Wasn't she a darling-In her mother's eyes!

THE CELEBRATED MRS. MARTHA BRADSTREET IN COURT.—Old residents will remember the cele brated Bradstreet claim trial in this city in 1833 celebrated for the amount of property involved, (50 acres on the west side of Genesee street, Utica, and valued at $500,000)—the great array of talent on each side (Daniel Webster being retained by the prosecutrix)—the fact that Mrs. Bradstreet argued her own case before the court and jury, and in such a sectoric property of the sectoric property involved, and the sectoric property involved, the sectoric property involved, and the sectoric property involved, the sectoric property involved property involved, the sectoric property involved property i and in such a masterly manner as to astouni everybody, drawing from John Van Buren the assertion that she (Mrs. Bradstreet) was the best read real estate lawyer he ever knew or had read of—celebrated for the fact that the jury atecheese which poisoned them, and which led to their being which poisoned them, and which led to their being discharged at 3 o'clock in the morning, the judge believing that it was choters, and fearful that it might become epidemic, he dissolved the courtant celebrated for the pertinacity with which Mrs. B. has since prosecuted her claim. Mrs. Bradetreet, who is now quite seventy years of age, with hair as white as snow-flakes, but with a step as firm and vigorous as some ladies of thirty, yesterday appeared in the United States Court, attired in modern habiliments, with a white natty hat, surmounted with an olegant white plume three feet in length, and made a motion for the continuance of her suit for something to that efcontinuance of her suit (or something to that effect), expressing her determination to contest her claims in 1856. Mrs. Bradstreet is confessedly one of the most remarkable females of this cenone of the most remarkable remails of this cen-tury. But few lawyers are as well read in real estate matters as she, and certainly none have the assiduity and indomitable perseverance which she has exhibited during the last 25 years in prosecuting her claims against parties now occupying property in Utica, which she asserts rightfully belongs to her.—Albany Argue.

M., and 3 to 6 p. M. Clinss for gents every Monday and Wednesday evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

On account of objections from a great number of pupils heretofore, religious dimentius are removed by forming two classes.

J. P. L. thinks it unnecessary to mention all the Dances and Waltzes he will teach in his school. The great number of pupils he has taught in this city for the last ten years is the best recommendation he can offer. Notwithstanding all the Fancy Dances and Waltzes J. P. L. is acquainted with, he takes pleasure in staring that on his visit to the bouth he has net with its friend Pingailly Dritsk, from the Opera of Psirs, and when here the principal Dancer of Placide's Varieties.

RAILROAD!

THIS GREAT WORK OF INTERusl Improvement (379 miles from Wheeling-to Baltimore, and 468 to Washington,) was opened to the Ohio river in January, 1854, and has now been full tested and approved, both as a freight and paroute. This road is located in a romantic counsolidly constructed, fully conjupped, and caretin, managed, and is thus rendered an structive as well as asfe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio Road, from Columbus to the Ohio river, near Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this roate, oftening, as it does, the most thorough Railroad connection with the entire West. connection with the chair of work.

THE ONLY THROUGH TICKETS BETWEEN LOCISVILLE AND THE NATIONAL METROPOLIS are sold by this road, which runs direct to Washington without the delay of passing through Bailtimore. It is also the only line by which baggage can be checked to Washington from the West. At Enlimore the road makes a direct connection with the Bailroad to Philadelphia and New York, &c.
